

Patient Photo Wristbands

Enhancing positive patient identification with monochrome or color wristband photos

To enhance positive patient identification, some healthcare organizations want to capture the patient's photo and print it onto the patient's wristband.

Your local ISG dealer offers complete solutions for capturing the photo and printing the wristband. Black and white as well as color wristband printers are available. Our easy-to-use and seamless photo capture solution, called SmartFoto, allows you to implement without a major investment in money, IT time and training. There is virtually nothing to learn and you do not have to switch applications or purchase expensive middleware.
